

THE EVENING BULLETIN

THURSDAY, MAY 27, 1886.

CHOLERA prevails at Venice and Brindisi. Fourteen new cases were recently reported at the latter place.

The latest in regard to the President's approaching marriage, that Miss Folsom the bride-to-be, says there is no truth in the rumor, and she is greatly mortified at the report.

The rights of way for the extension of the Kentucky Central to the proposed new bridge at Covington has already cost the company $149,300. Transfers costing that sum have been made.

The Kentucky Union Railroad Company claim that the $400,000 subscription made by Bourbon County is valid and the matter will be contested in the Circuit Court at that place next month.

The Democratic convention to nominate a candidate for Superior Judge will be held at Lebanon on the 17th of next month. The only candidates now in the field are Hon. Joseph F. Folsom, of New Castle, and Hon. Mike Saufley, of Stan ford.

Since there has been so much said and written about free turnpikes, would it not be well to make some effort to secure free schools? It may not be generally known that there is scarcely a free school in Mason County, except in the city of Mayville. Yet, it is a fact.

The New York Sun still thinks Carlisle and Hill would make a rousing ticket for the next national contest. There are about one hundred thousand, more or less, of the "untutored" here in Kentucky who will heartily endorse the views of our luminous contemporary.

Three Anarchist leaders, indicted and now in custody at Chicago, should be given an early trial, and, if convicted, swift execution of the sentence should follow. Such a course would have a good effect in keeping cut-throats and murderers of a like ilk from our shores.

The tax-payers of Mason County needn't hesitate to vote the subscription of $50,000 to the Mayville and Big Sandy railroad. There is hardly a county in the State in better financial condition. And then the benefits to be derived from the road over-balance the amount asked for.

In speaking of our efficient Circuit Clerk, the Bourbon News says:

"May the Lord continue to shower his blessings on Colonel Parry, and make the Democrats re-elect him Circuit Clerk in August."

Our esteemed contemporary can rest easy. The Democrats have all along intended to re-elect Mr. Parry, and they will not require any "making" to do their duty. It's good as settled that Colonel Parry will fill the office of Circuit Clerk six years longer, at least.

The Kentucky Democrat says:

"That non-partisan paper, the Greenup Gazette, has put on its way paint and going for the blue, and the red, and the art. What is the matter, Bro. Basin?"

There is nothing the matter with us, Bro. Basin.

We feel unusually well, and we are pleased to know that our notice in a recent issue of the Gazette of Mr. Savage was kindly received by the Democracy of Greenup County.

In fact, a number of the most prominent members of the party in this county have recently informed us that Mr. S. had not a qualification to recommend him for Congressional honors.

Other members of the party have told us that he was qualified for the position.

When we asked them to name his qualifications, they answered, with a grin: "Well, he's a 'hustler'."

The fact is, the Democracy of this county do not believe Mr. Savage is very good Congressional material.

We have heard a number of good Democrats say they would not vote for him if he was the nominee of the party.

He would make the weakest ticket the Democrats have put out in this Congressional District for the last six years.

We are surprised to see the Democracy of the mountain section put forward such Congressional material when there are many good and competent men that might be put to the front with honor to themselves and their party, among whom we may mention W. C. Ireland, John Hager, L. T. Moore and K. F. Prichard, of Boyd County; E. B. Wilholt, of Grayson; B. F. Warnock, E. F. Dulin and T. H. Payne, of Greenup.

State Day.

(Excerpts)

Prospective brides may be interested to learn that there are thirty-two days in the year on which it is unlucky to marry, according to the authority of a manuscript dated in the fifteenth century. These days are January first, second, fourth, fifth, seventh, ninth, fifteenth, February sixth, seventh, eighth, ninth, March first, sixth, eighth; April sixth, eleventh; May fifth, seventh; June seventh, eleventh; July fifth, nineteenth; August eleventh; September sixth, eighth; October sixth, ninth; November fifteenth, seventeenth, and December fifteenth, sixteenth, seventeenth. Consequently January is the worst month and September the best month in the year for marriage.

Indian Prohibitionists.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., May 27.—The Prohibitionists met in a convention 400 strong, and voted a state ticket headed by J. S. Hughes, of Richmond, for secretary of State.

THE UNIONS' ULTIMATUM.

THE KNIGHTS MUST ACCEPT OR A SPLIT WILL ENSUE.

The Paper is Very Dictatorial and Against the Principles of Arbitration—The Female Knights—Mortal Troubles.

Architects, Contractors, &c.

CLEVELAND, O., May 27.—The trades unionists completed their labor by laying before the executive board of the Knights of Labor a written statement of the position of the union which is now being considered.

It is said to be the ultimatum of the unions and must be accepted without amendment or a split will ensue. A delegate in speaking of this matter said: "The policy of the trades unions is dictatorial, while the Knights of Labor support the principles of arbitration, and I think the Knights are right."

The working people are beginning to realize this, and are rapidly deserting the unions for the Knights.

We do not propose that these unions shall come into our order as a disorganized mob, but as separate assemblies, each union retaining its organization as to membership and general outlets, only requiring that when such assemblies propose strikes their respective leaders shall call the executive board of the Knights for approval before that final experiment is resorted to.

There is one female delegate here in the person of Mrs. L. B. Schutte, of Massachusetts, who is a Knight. She has been a member of the Knights of Labor, in denouncing the Knights of Labor, was wholly because of some local friction, and does not reflect on the principles and activities of the order.

The Knights of Labor, however, say they have, after a close study of the constitution of the Knights, decided that so long as the order pursues its present non-sectarian and law abiding course, there is nothing in it that would offend the Knights.

It is also asserted that Mr. Powdery has forwarded a declaration of the principles of the order to the pope, and that some utterances of the papal see in the premises may shortly be made.

The female delegation was called to order by Master Powerly, and is still in session.

Commencing this afternoon sessions will be held from 2 p. m. to 6 p. m., and from 8 a. m. until 12 m., until the convention adjourns.

Brakemen's Grand Lodge.

CLEVELAND, O., May 27.—The grand lodge of the brotherhood of railway brakemen is in session here, and has expelled twenty-six of its number for originating the strike on the Union Pacific railroad, and has suspended "Fatty" for nearly a year.

The grand lodge is considering the case of those members who took part in the Missouri Pacific strike and intends to expel those who destroyed or injured property.

The grand master says the brotherhood does not sanction strikes.

Another One-Man Affair.

ROCKFORD, Ill., May 27.—All the men of the local City Furniture factory struck yesterday.

The trouble is the discharge of a fellow workman. The company refused to take the man back and the factory shut down.

John Sudding, a member of the state board of the Knights of Labor, is advising them to go back to work, saying it is not safe to strike after the knights. The strikers have not yet decided what course to take.

YALE STUDENTS HILARIOUS.

Close of the Student War—Owing to the professors—Classmate Fraternalism.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., May 27.—Last night was a great time for Yale college. About 500 of the students, representing all the classes marched around the campus singing college songs. They then formed in line and marched down the hill to the Yale Club on Hillhouse avenue, where they gave loud cheers for the president. President Porter was out of town, and the disappointed students then marched to the residence of Professor Dwight, the newly elected president, and gave him a regular thunderbolt of cheer.

They then marched to the campus fence and sang the repertoire or college songs. From there they marched to Chapel street, cheering each other in turn, after which each class dispersed. It was the largest body of students ever gathered for such a purpose.

OUTCOME OF A MYSTERY.

A Hotel Keeper Sued for Injuries Received in His House.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., May 27.—Denison R. Bishop, of New York, has brought a suit in the United States district court against Col. E. West, the millionaire hotel man, for $1,000 damages.

This is the outcome of a mystery which has never been solved, and which caused a great deal of excitement at the time.

The morning of August 27, 1885, a man was found in his room at the Nicodemus horrible beaten and unconscious.

The room had the appearance of a den, and the man was found lying on a couch, with which it was supposed the man was done.

Bloomer was a boy agent, and had his samples in the room. He never gave an account of the affair, if he ever knew, but he instituted an action against Col. West, who was the proprietor of the hotel.

Burned Out the Spot.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., May 27.—A dispute has been resolved in Milwaukee. The northern part of this state, that is, a house of ill-repute, about a mile from that village, was burned, together with four inmates.

A fifth occupant escaped alive, but so badly burned that his life is despaired of.

The dead were identified as Maggie Carroll, Daniel Doyle, and a woman, reported to be Doyle's wife. William Clark is fatally burned. It thought the fire was intentionally set, and two persons who escaped from the burning building were arrested on suspicion.

NOT HIS BRIDE.

A Strange Bedfellow Brings a Young Man to His Room.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., May 27.—John H. Dillon, a young carpenter, walked into Forsyth's laundry office and told the young lady bookkeeper that she had married him seven years ago and with violent demonstrations ordered that she should leave his employment and go to keeping house. The astonished young lady became frightened at his threatening manner, called for help and had her visitor arrested.

In a short time afterward he again entered the laundry and repeated the demand. The police then arrested Dillon, who has been in some time. The young lady never saw him before. Dillon will go to the Mid-West state lunatic asylum.

Mr. Arthur's Condition.

NEW YORK, May 27.—If the sky had not been suddenly covered by clouds the early morning of yesterday, Mr. Arthur's health would have taken another drive in Central park. Susceptibility to damp being one of the characteristics of Gen. Arthur's illness it was judged prudent under the circumstances to provide him with a carriage to drive in the park. He was put in a carriage on Saturday with Surgeon Collins his health has continued to improve, and he has been within the last few days to see several friends, with whom he has had pleasant chats. Among them was Gen. John A. Logan.

Twenty-five Bloodless Executions.

BELLEVUE, Idaho, May 27.—The Third district court decided that Chief Justice Clegg sentenced twenty-seven prisoners convicted this term, all being Mormons except two. The sentences range from three months and $100 fine to twelve months and $300 fine.

It is thought that the condemned will be sent to the state prison at Detroit, there to remain for a long period, to the Boise City United States penitentiary. There are 145 indictments drawn for unlawful cohabitation for the term of one year. All the persons involved, except one, have refused to recognize the law in future.

Too Much Cigarettes.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., May 27.—James Casey, a newsboy, aged fifteen years, in Danbury, fell down unconscious, and remained for some time in a precarious condition.

It was thought to be a case of sunstroke, but it was soon discovered that he had taken too many cigarettes and had taken a nervous prostration.

It is said by the physicians that he has been a case of nicotine poisoning, and he is still in a dangerous state.

A Mercantile Suit.

COSICANA, Pa., May 27.—The suit of Crawford & Biggs, against R. G. Dan, and others, on mercantile account, the former claiming damages amounting to $35,000 for alleged losses sustained by a false report of their financial standing given out by the defendants, was ended yesterday by a verdict in favor of R. G. Dan & Co.

Methodists Afraid of China.

RICHMOND, Va., May 27.—The Methodist Episcopal conference voted a resolution against the attention of the president of the United States to the international treaty with China, the disregard of which threatens violence to the missionaries of the church in that country. A long discussion of the temperance question followed.

Swan Mills Blow Up.

CLEVELAND, O., May 27.—Swan's mill, near Detroit, was blown up by the explosion of the boiler. Engineer Smith was killed, being literally torn to pieces. Six other employees were injured, but it is thought, fatally. The entire building together with the machinery, was demolished.

Mr. David Davis' Carbuncle.

BLOOMFIELD, Ill., May 27.—David Davis, noticed a pimple upon his shoulder, which soon developed into a virulent and dangerous carbuncle. He is still a great sufferer from it, and without doubt will suffer for a long time to come. His physician stated that the point of greater danger over.

A "Gamer" Exhibition.

LEWISTON, Me., May 27.—Patsy Darrington, of this city, and Betsy Barry, of Portland, last night fought six rounds to a draw. Marquis of Queensbury rules. The spectators paid $1.00 for the most "gamy" exhibition of the kind which ever occurred in the vicinity.

Bloody Stabbing Affray.

OPELKA, Ala., May 24.—J. A. Jackson and Owen Allen, in Talapoosa county, disagreed over the candidates for the probate judgeship, and each upon each other with great fury for five minutes, with clubs slashing progress, when Allen crossed dead from a thrust in the abdomen. Jackson has five serious wounds, and may die.

$15,000 Collapse.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., May 27.—The fourth floor of the building occupied by the Brunswick-Balks Billiard Company gave way yesterday carrying with it the floors below. Property to the value of $15,000 was lost.

This is the outcome of a mystery which has never been solved, and which caused a great deal of excitement at the time.

The morning of August 27, 1885, a man was found in his room at the Nicodemus horrible beaten and unconscious.

The room had the appearance of a den,

For Sale—House and lot, in the Fifth Ward, known as the Limestone Pottery, at public auction, on the premises, Thursday, May 27, at 2 o'clock p. m.

SEVENTY-FIVE cents is a small sum, but that is the amount for which Jasper Spencer shot and fatally wounded his cousin, James Ballard, Jr., near Mt. Sterling, recently.

SATURDAY will be observed as Decoration Day at Lexington. One of the grandest military displays witnessed at that place since the war is expected to take place.

Dr. A. B. LEONARD, D. D., pastor of the Central M. E. Church, Springfield, Ohio, and renowned as a temperance orator and preacher, will attend the next Ruggles camp meeting, which will be held August 5th to 15th.

Ruggles' camp meeting will begin August 5th, and continue till the 15th. The statement yesterday that it would begin on the 9th of August, was confounded with the sale of booths, which takes place June 9th.

Mr. MARTIN, of Cynthiana, has been appointed mail agent on the Kentucky tucky Central in place of Mr. Lal, who recently resigned. The appointment, we understand, was made on the recommendation of Speaker Carlisle.

PARTIES who heard R. C. O. Benjamin's lecture at the Court House last night on the subject, "The Negro Problem Solved," compliment it very highly. Mr. Benjamin is a fluent speaker and his lecture was full of wit and good humor.

TOBACCO growers are very much disengaged and almost despair of raising a crop because of the ravages of the cut worms. In some instances plants have been set and reset several times, and yet the stand is very poor.—Midway Clipper.

Cut worms attacked Ben. Pettit's hemp field, and he was recommended to try salt. He sowed salt pretty thickly and says that the worms seemed to thrive on it, and that he found more and more ravenous worms where he sowed them elsewhere.—Lexington Gazette.

NOTWITHSTANDING much is said about the importance of a blood-purifying medicine, possibly the matter has never claimed your serious attention. Think of it now! If, by using Ayer's Sarsaparilla, you avoid scrofula, and transmit health to your offspring, thank us for the suggestion.

By land or at sea, out on the prairie, or in the crowded city, Ayer's Cathartic Pills are the best for purgative purposes, wherever alike convenient, efficacious, and safe. For sluggish bowels, torpid liver, indigestion, bad breath, flatulence, and sick headache, they are a sure remedy.

HAUCK's Reed and Brass Band have very kindly volunteered to furnish music for the strawberry supper to be given by the ladies of the Baptist Church this evening and to-morrow evening, in the building on Limestone street adjoining Mr. A. R. Pearce's residence. Some choice selections will be rendered.

The cost of settling up the estate of the late Wm. S. Bots, of Flemingsburg, is estimated at about $28,000, which sum includes clerk's fees, sheriff's fees, allowances to the administrator and his Attorney. There are nearly two hundred heirs and of course their attorneys will come in for good fees, also.

Maysville Scintillations.

Master Swift Champ, the elephant-loving son of the News, persuaded us [heaven] to attend Mr. Barnum's circus at Maysville, at the foot of a hill, Friday. We went, we saw, we collected $4, and have done much better if that surging mass of sweltering humanity had come up to the par excellent standard of Messrs. S. S. Riley and J. M. Mitchell—and by the grace of George Rosser we swing on to the most of it. It was a bright, balmy, Ben Deering kind of a day. In fact it was a day on wheels—and so was about half of the night. The circus was hard to get to, and came moderately high to the press agent and George Rosser, but we got there all at the same, all covered with glory, some dust and nearly perishing for red lemonsade. Mr. Barnum, as usual, welcomed us into the "holiest of the holy" reserved seat department with his natural sauvity and a broad, all-wool Fourth-of-July smile, and marvelled at the lateness of our arrival. But he soon broke the dire suspension by ordering the band to play and the cavalcade of Nine Great London Shows Under One Great Pavilion to go around—notwithstanding Craddock had to hurry back on the afternoon train to meet Governor Fitzhugh Lee, and couldn't be there. It was a sad event for Mr. Barnum to play to a Kentucky audience without Craddock, and the result was a "cut" performance, but one that gave general satisfaction so far as we could discern from the few precinct reports arriving at the close. In the language of John Hite, [chestnut with gray whiskers and the wind whistling through them] we went "bole times." The last performance was more "cuter" than the "fast," and was rushed through at a pull-up-the-stakes-and-hurry-off-the-monkey's-gait. It was like eating ice cream and strawberries at a church picnic—pay in advance and take what the frisky female with a white apron and a sick husband sees proper to give you.

Returning to Maysville, which was situated about two miles down the river, Colonel Rosser's prayer was answered—the rickety old ambulance did not break, and by the grace of Col. Ben Parry's seventy-five cents, the atrocious villainy of the reins permitted us to wear our clothes away. May the Lord continue to shower his blessings on Colonel Parry, and make the Democrats re-elect him Circuit Clerk in August.

Just before death set in, we stumbled nearly into an ice-cream saloon that owed Rosser fourteen years subscription, and the next notable event was slinging a small boy on the platform of the "hind end of a hind car-with-a-locked-door just pulling out from a flock of nine circus trains in a covey at the round house 1,100 yards from the depot. This sneaking out with the train business three-fourths of a minute before the advertised time, was a set-up job by Chief Dispatch-er Maynard, in retaliation, simply because we asked him "how he liked his parts?"—Bourbon News.

Strawberries and Cream.

The ladies of the Baptist Church will give a strawberry "symposium" on this and to-morrow evenings in the building on Limestone street one door below the residence of Mrs. A. R. Pierce. The affair is for the benefit of church and we trust that the friends of the ladies who have it in charge will see to it that it be made a success in every sense of the word. Refreshments in the shape of all the delicacies of the season, will be served.

The New Bridge.

The Cincinnati Enquirer, of the 26th inst., says: "The contract for the new bridge to be put over the Ohio River between Cincinnati and Covington was awarded yesterday, and work on the construction of it will commence in thirtydays. The estimated cost of the piers is $500,000." The bond and contract was signed in Covington yesterday by a gentleman acting for Mr. C. P. Huntington. The contracts for the Ashland and Newport Railroad were all finished yesterday, and work will commence on it next week between Newport and Maysville. Mason Ford & Co. and Shahan & Co. have got the lion's share of the work."

At Rest.

The funeral of the late A. T. Cox took place last evening from the family residence in the presence of a large assemblage of our citizens, and friends of the deceased from neighboring towns. The ceremonies were conducted by Rev. Russell Cecil, who was assisted by Rev. Cleon Keyes, of Lewisburg. After the services at the residence, the remains in charge of Maysville Commandery No. 10, K. T., were followed to the Maysville cemetery by one of the largest funeral processions ever witnessed in this city, where they were laid away in their final resting place with the honors of Masonry.

The crowds that turned out to pay this last tribute of respect to the memory of their lamented fellow citizen, was a striking proof of the high esteem in which the deceased was held wherever known.

PROF. CONNOLY of Ohio, will lecture in the M. E. Church Sunday night. Subject, "The Bible as a Text Book."

The Latonia races begin to-day and will close June 5th. Special low rates are offered by the Kentucky Central during the meeting.

One of the pleasant places of amusement this week is the bazaar and dance at the new Amazon Hall, given by Hunt's Reed and Cornet Band. A choice programme is rendered every evening, before dancing begins.

JONHNSON TAYLOR, a young man residing in the Mt. Carmel neighborhood, and Miss Maude Forman, of the Fifth Ward, concluded to get married yesterday, and crossing the river, had the knot tied at the home of the groom later in the evening.

The remains of Mrs. Lettie Wood, nee Lettie Haydon, a former resident of this county, and the widow of the late Capt. N. S. Wood, deceased, will arrive from Missouri on the morning train, to-morrow and be interred at the cemetery in Washington. Services at the residence of W. R. Massie Beasley, Esq. The couple returned to the home of the groom later in the evening.

The statement by the Ripley correspondent of the Cincinnati Enquirer that the late A. T. Cox held $60,000 life insurance at the time of his death is far from the facts in the case. The only life insurance the deceased held was, we are informed, a policy for a small sum in the Masonic Mutual Benefit Association, of this city.

MISS ELLA MARTIN, of Wilson's Bottom, Mr. G. A. Clause, of Cincinnati, Mr. J. F. Davis, of Lexington, and Mr. E. Tomoniosian, of Antioch, Syria, are stopping at the Potters House, on Sutton street, this week. Mr. Tomoniosian will enter Vanderbilt University next fall. We will probably consent to deliver a lecture on home life in his native country while here.

One gentleman arrived here on last Monday from Perry county to attend Barnum's show. He had been on the road nine days and walked the whole trip. He had heard of the magnificence and grandeur of Barnum's exhibitions, and thought he could spend twenty days once in a life-time to see the show and be able to hand the wonders seen down to generations yet unborn.—[Mt. Sterling Gazette.]

MENTION was made yesterday of the allowance to W. A. Suddith, E-q., of Flemingsburg, of $10,000 a year for services rendered in settling up the estate of the late Wm. S. Bots at that place. We also stated that it was probably the largest fee ever paid an attorney in this section of the State. Since then we have been informed that Wm. S. Bots, himself, was paid a similar fee—$10,000 for services rendered in settling up the McGowan estate about thirty years ago. The co-incidence is rather a remarkable one.

THE BOURBON News, in speaking of the building of the proposed Maysville and Big Sandy Railroad, says: "This means a big business for Maysville—particularly in the real estate business. Jas. C. Owens, the talkiest man in the State, and one of the best thinkers, says that he's going to let go of several town lots—in fact, all that he has in real estate, and glide foot-loose and fancy free on the boomlet. Jim is about right after all. Booms are generally fictitious, and are the products of man's expansive imaginative powers. True, the road will help Maysville, but it will help the county more than it will the city. One thing is certain, it can not poll issues with the river, and the river will hold it down to a non-discriminating business. All of the river towns from Ashland to Newport will be alike insured against the cut-throat discrimination which generally impoverishes the interior towns."

A Queer Fish.

Rev. George S. Easton had a curiosity in the shape of a fish to die in a small aquarium at his home in the North Fork, at a point near Taylor's Mill. The fish was only about three inches in length, resembled the pike variety in shape, but it was perfectly transparent, the bones, brain and other internal make-up being plainly visible. The crowds that turned out to pay this last tribute of respect to the memory of their lamented fellow citizen, was a striking proof of the high esteem in which the deceased was held wherever known.

PROF. CONNOLY of Ohio, will lecture in the M. E. Church Sunday night. Subject, "The Bible as a Text Book."

ONE gentleman arrived here on last Monday from Perry county to attend Barnum's show. He had been on the road nine days and walked the whole trip.

He had heard of the magnificence and grandeur of Barnum's exhibitions, and thought he could spend twenty days once in a life-time to see the show and be able to hand the wonders seen down to generations yet unborn.—[Mt. Sterling Gazette.]
